DIVERSITY IN THE WORLD COMMUNITY: West Africa

This year the Livingston Student Center will celebrate the cultures, music, literature, history, art, and politics of the nations of West Africa. Watch the Targum for announcements of specific events. These events are also noted by a special symbol on the calendar.

Culture Connection

Livingston

LIVINGSTON 101 is a program of the LSC fostering cooperative efforts between LC and the RU academic departments. It brings to campus internationally renowned scholars whose works are read in classes. Cooperative efforts for 1994-95 include the departments of Women's Studies, Linguistics, English, Puerto Rican and Hispanic Caribbean Studies, Africana Studies, and Mason Gross School of the Arts. Visiting scholars will present major public lectures, demonstrations, concerts, visit classes, and meet with faculty and students individually. Watch the Targum for major announcements. These events are also noted by a special symbol.
